Guests: Maggie E., Alicia M., Wendy S.

1. Welcome / Intro / Public comment
  - Coffee mornings are difficult because it takes so long to brew. Nancy can turn it on because she gets here at 6 a.m.
2. Review Oct. 18, 2016 meeting minutes –
  - Brittney moves. Vicki seconds.
  - Vote: Yes: 9
No: 0
3. Harvest Festival recap
  - Most difficult part was getting volunteers to man the booths, and then getting the volunteers to show up.
4. Screenagers update (Kierstin)
  - Kierstin spoke with Kim Hansen about getting Cabrillo College as a venue. Sometime between February to April.
5. Math tutor update
  - starts on Thursday, November 3.
  - Richard Dye has contacted all the families who were recommended to take advantage of the program. Commitment is now through Christmas vacation.
6. Teacher thank-yous for Thanksgiving
  - By Tuesday, 11/22 bring wine or pie. Ask the parents to email Brittney to let her know what they are donating. Make sure to have enough to include staff.
7. Track update (Kelli)
  - Kelli spoke with Victor from PVUSD because she'll have to work with/through him. Kelli has been in touch with Wharf to Wharf already. Possible that PVUSD will fund some of it. Kelli will pursue that.
  - American Heart Association fundraiser — heart healthy. November 22, jump rope. Kick off assembly THIS Thursday for the kids. 8:05-8:35 for K-3. 1:00-1:30 for afternoon kinder and 4-6.

8. Principal's report (Rich)
  - November 21, MV will be hosting Aptos Elementary schools for superintendent talk on funding. CBO will also be here. Meeting will be in MPR, and then we'll break into separate schools to talk about school test scores/grading.
  - The evacuation path is now open after 26 years. SSC November 15 meeting will have sheriff to talk about safety plan. All classrooms have emergency supplies to last in case classes are locked in for some time. Will practice so kids know what to do if there's an emergency during lunch or recess.
  - Pancake breakfast with super on 11/16.

9. Next meeting: Tuesday, December 13 at 6:00
